

Refuting JD's March 28, 2018 Declaration Against Mike Marraccini

On January 9, 2018, Public Figure Jane Doe filed for a temporary restraining order against Mike Marraccini. On March 28, 2018, JD submitted a Declaration in support of her request for RO against Mike. The following is a breakdown of her statements and supporting proof of its inaccuracies. Supporting evidence is compiled in a PFD. These are excerpts and not entire conversations. Supplemental documents are provided as well.

All records contained herein are a matter of public record and available via FOIA requests.

Reminder: Times given on texts are UTC – 7 hours ahead of PST

Declarations 5+6: JD claims Mike began physical abusing her in June 2016, just three months after meeting. However, in her Dasasmi interview, JD claims the physical abuse didn't begin until their trip to Iceland (December 2016). Nowhere in her Declaration does she mention being abuse WHILE being pregnant, nor does she mention being abused while having ovarian cancer.

-Declarations 7+8: JD claims it was Mike's decision for her to get an abortion. However, her text messages to him claim ownership of the decision, stating "I just don't want to be making a massive mistake. I was just thinking last night that my decision to terminate is really just because it wouldn't be convenient to have a kid and that that's very selfish of me to end a life because I don't want the responsibility. I need to come to terms with that."

-Declaration 10: JD claims Mike pressured her to make an appointment at Planned Parenthood, and that when she didn't do it fast enough, he made it for her. However, text messages show JD made the appointment herself, without pressure from Mike.

-Declaration 11: JD claims 1. She grieved for the child and 2. Mike would get angry and lose his temper when she would discuss her post-abortion emotions. However, 1. JD claimed in texts that she was pregnant with twins (without ever providing Mike a sonogram). Point 2 discussed below.

-Declaration 11+12: (11) As stated above, JD claimed Mike would get angry and lose his temper when she would discuss her post-abortion emotions. (11+12) The texts provided show no such thing, and that Mike was, in fact, supportive of her feelings, never implying at any point he "would have said anything to get [JD] to abort." Mike also requests they have protected sex from hereon out, but JD doesn't what that. She states "...I like how it's feeling now as well. I've been craving that. I feel very connected to you having sex that way and I appreciate that right now." Mike responds, "Of course it does, but it's not smart to keep doing."

-Declaration 13: JD claims Mike demeaned her due to her sadness after the abortion, constantly calling her "worthless" and "ugly." However, there are zero instances of Mike calling her "worthless" or "ugly" (or depressed) in almost 2,500 pages of text messages, spanning over 1.5 years. In fact, the only one to call JD "worthless" is herself, on three separate occasions.

-Declaration 13 (cont'd): JD claims Mike called her mentally ill, bipolar and said she needed to be medicated. However, text messages show JD spiraling in December 2016. To give this some context, according to Mike's deposition and Colin Scanlon's Declaration, JD admitted in December 2016 with Mr.

Owens (Public Figure), Mike, Colin present, that she had fabricated her pregnancies with Mike. Mr. Scanlon states “[JD] was complaining of depression and suicidal thoughts at the fear of her relationship with Michael ending and was very distraught” and “[JD] admitted that she was in fact not pregnant, and there was no need for an abortion.” Mike reaffirms these assertions in his deposition. This is the catalyst for the following text exchanges. In the early hours of December 9, 2016, JD states in a text message to Mike That she needs help. She also makes the following statements:

- “I won’t mess up again. I will get help, I promise right now.”
- “I’m pulled over and getting a drink.”
- “I’ve made my bed and there’s nothing I can do to rectify this with you so there’s not even a point.”
- “You said you would give me another change and that we could go to Iceland together and I promised to be in full treatment.”
- “I promise you I will go and get help.”
- “I’m almost home to get help in order to do that and improve myself...”
- “I’m going to check myself in now I’m on my way.”
- “I just met my family at the hospital.”
- “But I’m on a hold here now that I admitted my problem.”
- “I have messed up so much, oh my god. I absolutely hate myself.”
- “Please. Oh my god. I’m so sorry. Please. I will do anything. I want to get better.”
- “I am a worthless piece of shit and I’m sorry you all have had to deal with me.”
- “I want to stay here until Wednesday and better myself...”

TRIGGER WARNING

In these next messages, JD threatens suicide, while allegedly at the health facility.

- “It sucks too cause I really had wanted to be that girl but it’s too late now, I’ve screwed it all up, and I’m just gonna go quietly.”
- “...I just mess up. It’s not even worth me trying. I just seriously need to be done. I feel like the worst person in the world for frustrating you so much and I know you will be better off if I’m not around.”
- “Mike, you have meant everything to me. Your wellbeing, your happiness...I've genuinely tried and I've failed miserably. I just came to the conclusion last week that I will never get being a good girlfriend "right" and having a family down the line is the goal I've had for my life since I was little. But I just keep screwing it up and I've realized that maybe some people are just not meant to live long and have families. I am causing you and your family and my family so much pain by being around and it's not fair to anyone anymore. For as much as I try, I will always screw up, even though my intentions have always been good. But I don't want you to feel hurt and upset at me all the time and I really don't think there's anything I can do to rectify my actions. I truly took you for your words this weekend and I feel absolutely broken. I don't want to go on continuously making mistakes and embarrassing myself, all while unintentionally hurting people on the way, and I have genuinely come to the conclusion that this world, and the people in my lives, would be a tremendous amount better without me in them. I'm sorry for any pain I have caused and I promise you I will get rid of myself so there won't be more pain for you and you can find happiness because you deserve it more than anyone I know."

-Declaration 14: In her declaration, as well as in the Dasasmi interview, JD claims to have bought Mike a [Panerai] $10,000 watch [on June 5, 2017], at his request. Texts show Mike stating he never asked her for the watch. Mike did receive a watch from JD, but it was found to be a knock-off, purchased from Amazon. JD never provided Mike a receipt for the watch, the number of her alleged watch broker, or any documentation confirming the watch's authenticity. According to the forensic laptop analysis of texts between JD and Mike, JD claims the watch is delayed in its shipping, that her father's jewelry broker found the exact watch Mike had wanted and a trade-in of Mike's original watch gift (which he had yet to receive) was made, plus some extra cash. When the watch breaks, JD refuses to give Mike the broker's phone number, but does provide an invalid Panerai serial number. By October 2017, JD has still never provided Mike with the papers for the watch to prove its authenticity or the receipt from her purchase of the watch. Mike later purchased an authentic Panerai for himself after his relationship with JD.

-Declaration 15: In JD's declaration, she states Mike did not like her and didn't want to be with her. Texts prove the contrary. JD also claims Mike was continued dating her "for the money and connections that [my] father's local fame provided," but that he "didn't care" about her. In texts from the laptop analysis, it's proven time and time again that while Mike expressed interest in doing radio, JD is the instigator and proponent of the radio show, not Mike. It is believed JD was impersonating the agent, texting with herself and emailing Mike from a fake email account.

-Declaration 16: JD claims Mike asked her to purchase tickets to attend a Tony Robbins conference, and claims she did purchase said tickets. Text messages disprove these statements. In fact, on 8/11/16, JD texts, "AHH EXCITING QUESTION TO ASK YOU! Just spoke w my boss at the radio station on the phone and I mentioned how much I love Tony Robbins. He said the station has two free tix to his four day program in San Jose - are you in?! It's apparently super expensive to do it but supposed to be life changing. Think it might beat us going to counseling lol!! Told him I would get right back to him." In October 2016, JD reminds Mike of the event (for which she received free tickets. He asks "Is that still happening." JD continues "Yes!!!! The station got two passes and I had given them your name for the second ticket! I hope you're still in, I'm STOKED. I really think it will be wonderful to do together! Exactly what we need!!! They even gave me a budget for a hotel down there cause I guess Tony's stuff starts early/goes way late." Organic mentions of Tony Robbins by Mike: Zero. *Side note- JD signed Mike up for a Barry's membership in late-October 2016.

-Declaration 18: In Declaration 18, JD claims Mike initiated communication with her after their breakup in late November/early December 2016. However, text messages prove JD was the one to initiate contact with Mike.

-Declaration 19: JD claims several things in this declaration. She admits she was suicidal, which is supported by the text messages. She claims Mike had hatred towards her. This is completely unsupported in the texts. Only JD herself claims to hate her. In fact, on December 8, 2016, JD asks Mike to assist her in picking out a service dog, claiming her psychiatrist recommended it for JD's anxiety- "Omg I forgot to tell you something. We have a task...Picking out a dog for me!!!!!" and "I'm not entirely sure but I saw the psychiatrist today and she said she wants to write me a prescription for a service dog BC she thinks it would really help my anxiety. So I can technically have whatever kind I want, but I'm thinking a golden. What kind do you think would be good?"

Much of this text exchange is included under Declaration 13 evidence. Some are duplicated here. JD claims in her Declaration 19 that her parents "called the police and had them come check on" her, and that the police took her to the ER, where she was given IV fluids. However, in the forensically analyzed texts to Mike, JD says "I just met my family at the hospital." Upon request, no record of this police call was found. JD also claims in Declaration 19 that she spoke with a psychologist and was released later that night after she "had calmed down and no longer felt like" she was a risk to herself. However, in the texts, JD tells Mike "They said prob 24 hours and then I can do intensive outpatient if my psychiatrist approves it." As to JD's claim that she did not want to speak with Mike, a text she sends to him contradicts that, stating the reason she did not want to be on the phone was "because I don't want anyone to know where, I'm pulled over and getting a drink. I have no idea where they are." JD continues to claim in the texts that her phone will be taken away at different points in time (between December 11-14, 2016). An ER visit with IV fluids administered would not require one's phone to be taken away.

As supplemental evidence, Mike submitted exhibits in the RO case that included texts from JD's mother and father to Mike. JD claims in her Declaration 19 "I did not want to talk with him and ignored his calls for several hours." Contrarily, texts from JD's own mother prove this is false, stating in December 9, 2016, "Mike, it's [JD's mom]. I got this text from [JD] who asked me to contact you and ask if you will give her another chance...Please read the text she wrote and consider giving her another chance." Later on, still December 9, 2016, JD's mom asks Mike if he's called her yet. He replies "I'm still on the phone with her." On December 11, 2016, JD's mom state, in a text to Mike, "Hi, Mike, we wanted to thank you so much for what you did for us and [JD] this weekend. You saved her and we will forever be grateful to you. She is getting treated as an inpatient right now and then will continue to be treated as an outpatient." This, along with claims her phone was being taken away, unequivocally refutes claims in JD's Declaration that she was not an inpatient. A reminder that during all this, Mike was with his dying step-father. Public Figure Mr. Owens' reasoning for JD's behavior on December 9, 2016 was "she suffered a concussion last week and between that and the pills she is not herself."

-Declaration 20: JD claims, in her Declaration 20, that Iceland was decided on as a vacation spot because Mike wanted to go there. She claims he said the trip would "help" their relationship. She states, "He told me everything he wanted to do in Iceland, and I planned and paid for it," further claiming the trip was paid for by emptying her childhood savings account. The forensically analyzed texts refute all of the above. The first mention of "Iceland" in the text laptop analysis comes from JD on August 11, 2016. She states, "Omg my pony is leading overall at the finals!!!!!! His price will almost double if he wins overall tomorrow. Bigger payday = rewarding ourselves with a trip to Iceland???" This statement proves that, if this pony is sold, that will be the Iceland trip money. After no response from Mike about Iceland, JD then says, "Ps Iceland? I got offer for $350k." Mike says, "I can." JD persists – "Can we go on a trip if the deal goes through?" to which Mike responds, "Yea, we can." This refutes JD's claims that the trip to Iceland was Mike's idea.

As to JD's claim that Mike told her everything he wanted to do in Iceland from her Declaration 20, this is refuted by the following text: "[Link] – would you want to add this to something we'd do? There are several other examples of JD suggesting different things for the Iceland trip. JD even asks Mike to visit a website and pick out some activities. Mike also states in his deposition "She [JD] bought the ticket and the trip without my knowing, and it says that in the text messages."

-Declaration 21: JD alleges Mike said horrible things to her on the flight to Reykjavik, Iceland. According to Mike's account, none of these things were ever said. He says JD was hysterical on the plane, for several hours, over him not saying they were in a relationship. Mike says JD wanted him to go on social media and say they were boyfriend and girlfriend. When asked why he didn't want to, Mike responds, "Because I had just witnessed her wanting to commit suicide a few days prior and for the duration of a month. So I said that I wanted to take it a day at a time." Mike has recounted the flight was a redeye and passengers within nearby rows could hear JD crying and yelling." When questioned in his deposition if he raised his voice, Mike responded, "To where the person in front of us would hear us? I mean, we were having a conversation on a redeye flight, so I think anybody could hear a normal conversation." Mike refutes JD's claims he asked for a threesome with her "sister or with a black man." On the contrary, it's reported that JD would offer Mike threesomes with her best friend.

-Declaration 22: JD states a woman passed her a note on the flight, telling her to leave Mike. Mike states in his deposition JD did tell him about the note, but that the person "had no idea what I had just gone through. And so - - that I'm sorry that somebody else had to hear our discussion, but at the time, like, that person had no idea what had just transpired over the last month." (JD constant threats of suicide, admission she fabricated two pregnancies, etc.).

-Declaration 24-29: In Declarations 24-29, JD claims heinous acts occurred at the hands of Mike, as well as other occurrences. Several differences between JD's Declaration, Dasasmi interview and TedX talk are listed below:

-Declaration: No mention of being drown in Iceland

-Dasasmi: "In Iceland, he tried to drown me in these private lagoons...and he knew I didn't know how to swim. So, he tried to drown me twice in lagoons."

-TedX: No mention of being drown in Iceland

-Declaration: "He suggested a threesome with my sister or with a black man."

-Dasasmi: No mention of this

TedX: No mention of this

-Declaration: No mention of being locked in sauna

-Dasasmi: "He tried to lock me in a sauna."

TedX: No mention of being locked in sauna

-Declaration: No mention of Mike telling JD to kill herself

-Dasasmi: No mention of Mike telling JD to kill herself

TedX: Claims on flight Mike said "I don't know. Kill yourself?"

-Declaration: No mention of Mike saying JD being dead and in heaven
-Dasasmi: No mention of Mike saying JD being dead and in heaven
-TedX: Claims Mike said on flight ““If you truly love me, you want me to be happy, and maybe if you’re in heaven, you can help me find my soulmate and look down and smile on our wedding day.”

-Declaration: Claims “40 spankings” occurred three days into the Iceland trip
-Dasasmi: No mention of being spanked 40 times in Iceland
-TedX: Claims the “40 spankings” occurred the very first day in Iceland

-Declaration: No mention of writing suicide note on plane
-Dasasmi: JD claims she was writing a suicide note on the plane
-TedX: No mention of writing suicide note on plane

-Declaration: Claims Mike said “I own you” during Iceland sex
-Dasasmi: No mention of Mike saying “I own you” during Iceland sex
-TedX: No mention of Mike saying “I own you” during Iceland sex

-Declaration: Claims she showed airplane lady’s note to Mike and he brushed it off
-Dasasmi: Claims she tore the note up herself
-TedX: Claims Mike tore airplane lady’s note up in a fit of rage

-Declaration: None of the things mentioned below in the TedX are mentioned at all
-Dasasmi: None of the things mentioned below in the TedX are mentioned at all
-TedX: Claims the first night in Iceland, Mike abruptly left dinner “right before the check came.” She claims she could not find her way back to the hotel and “stumbled around the streets of Reykjavik in the highest heels [I] owned, and in a sleeveless dress that was as inappropriate as you could get for the snow storm [I] was in.” She further claims “The fireworks went off at midnight, and I could hear people in the distance cheering. I could feel their excitement about the idea of a new year- new hopes, new dreams, new goals...And then there was me, looking worse than ever, after crying for the better part of 24 hours. I slipped into an alley. I was numb from the blanket of hopelessness and unworthiness I felt...I weakly stood up and hobbled back to the hotel. When I got to the room, he as livid. Maybe it was because he had had too many drinks, or maybe his Instagram post hadn’t gotten the attention he thought it would. Or maybe he was upset because he didn’t know where I was, and for a few hours, he had lost his power over me.”

According to a text from Mike, he was sick on January 4, 2017, even asking JD if she could bring him food in the hotel room. On January 7, 2017, JD further acknowledges this by texting "Got your yogurt and the wellness shot." Mike even states "My throat hurts too much to eat." After arriving home, JD texts Mike "I did. I had a great time with you and look forward to more greater and better trips and memories in the future."

In her Declaration, Stephanie Marraccini, Mike's sister, states that at no time did JD ever mention physical abuse at the hands of her brother. She also states that JD sent her frequent texts and photos while in Iceland and shared she and Mike had turned a corner and was "trilled to be having a wonderful time with him in Iceland."

-Declaration 30: JD claims in her Declaration 30 that "On January 10, 2017, Mr. Marraccini lost his job." However, in a text to Mike on January 11, 2017, JD texts the following, proving Mike quit his job and did not lose his job: "I'm really sorry you had such a bad day :(I'm really proud/inspired by you deciding you didn't want to go in the direction they wanted you to go in and having the courage to make your own way and create fulfillment in your life. I know it will pay off. It's totally up to you if you want to go to KGO in the morning. Didn't mean to pressure you and I completely understand if you don't want to."

In her Declaration 30, JD alleges Mike wanted to isolate JD from her family. Several texts indicate this is false and that Mike spent time with JD and her family together. She also claims Mike was said he had lost all motivation, was "constantly angry" and resented her for her successful career. Nothing in the texts support these claims. There is also no evidence in these texts Mike ever said "Your mom doesn't love you."

-Declaration 31: JD makes heinous claims about Mike in regard to their sex life. However, texts will show JD herself was the instigator of more taboo sex, even requesting to have anal and purchasing sex toys for the two of them to use, including one sent in early April 2017, after Mike quit his job. Furthermore, on January 21, 2017, JD texts "I'm just thinking about how excited I am to blindfold each other tomorrow :) I'm gonna blow your mind."

-Declarations 32-34: JD asserts in her declaration 32 that in mid-February 2017, she had bruises from an interaction with Mike, which included strangling, bruising of the arm and red spots under her eyes. Opposingly, Mike states in his deposition that he never put his hands on JD's neck, never slapped her, never held a pillow over her face, and never witnessed her lose consciousness during sex. Mike further states the red splotches under JD's eyes were prevalent throughout their relationship due lack of sleep (though she took Ambien nightly). Mike has stated elsewhere that JD would frequently visit the hospital for various issues, including allergies, which were another potential cause of the red splotches.

In his deposition, Mike is asked about JD's "Exhibit 5," which depicts JD with different undereye red marks, taken May 2017. Mike states he had never seen those marks on her before. As we have seen, JD fell off her horse in a riding competition in May 2017, but conveniently, no mention of this is made by JD's attorney.

Mike goes on to state, in his deposition, that he often saw JD with bruises on her body. "I would see her with bruises all the time...She rides horses every day, and so she would get bruises. I'm not going to dig into why she gets bruises from riding horses." When asked how frequently her would see JD with injuries on her body, Mike responded "In 2017 she was getting injured a lot. She fell off her horse multiple times. One time I was witness to it. One time my family was witness to it, but she had a lot of falls off the horses during all of 2017, especially with her seizures. Her seizure - - I mean, one of the points in time, like, in her texts even a couple days later, she had a huge bruise on the back of her head on - - I don't even remember where it was - - from falling and hitting her head on the counter after having a seizure. I mean, I wasn't going to constantly be bringing up how she was getting the bruises."

Lest us not forget, JD alleges she was in an Ube accident on April 6, 2017 (later suing Uber and both the driver of her rideshare and the other driver). Almost an entire month after the accident, JD claims to Mike in a text that she has suffered a seizure, "likely" due to the April 2017 Uber accident.

"I had a seizure on Wednesday night and I've never had one in my life. Didn't want to tell you cause I didn't want you to worry. But it was horrendous. I thought I was gonna die. I've never had one before. I hit my head so hard that I was knocked out cold for more than a minute. Apparently that just takes the lawsuit into a new stratosphere. I really don't want to have a seizure again so I hope they're resolved from that standpoint. But Joe crotchett said you don't just randomly start having a seizure at 26 if you've never had one before. So it's likely something that happened because of the accident."

Further down, JD states the bruise on her head is from the aforementioned seizure. JD never confirms she visited with a doctor after this – only that she received a referral for a neurologist.

JD claims in texts to have two more seizures in May 2017 (2nd and 23rd), alleging the latter required an ambulance to the hospital. JD never mentions anything about developing seizures in any capacity in her Declaration or Dasasmi interview.

JD continues to beg Mike to stay the night with her after developing these "seizures."

-Declaration 35: Here, JD states Mike "hated" Buttons, JD's small poodle, even claiming Mike expressed a desire to "punt" the dog. She also claims that after Buttons was attacked by another dog, resulting in Buttons' head being shaved and receiving stitches, Mike "complained about how ugly the dog was." Conversely, in texts, Mike expresses sympathy for Buttons, stating "That's horrible" and "I can't believe that [happened]." When expressing in August 2017 that Mike couldn't have Buttons to his home because he would poop and pee "every 10 minutes," JD responded "True," to which Mike further states "We [can't] have dogs in our place," implying a "No Dogs" policy in his apartment building. In early September 2017, Mike texts "How's Buttons?" Elsewhere, Mike has stated he commented on the size of Buttons, that he was the size of a football and joked that, because of this, he could be punted, contrary to JD's claims Mike "wanted to punt the dog."

-Declaration 36: In Declaration 36, JD claims that “sometime in February 2017, Mr. Marraccini asked me to take (and pay for) a trip to Dubai with him.” However, this is proven to be false in the forensically analyzed texts. In a message sent on or around January 21, 2017, JD writes “We need to go to Dubai. This deal is actually amazing.” This is the first mention of Dubai in the forensic report. As Mike has stated time and time again, JD would buy him trips without him knowing. Dubai is another example of just that, contrary to JD’s claims Mike asked for the trip. Evidence of this is found in the following text exchange on or around January 22, 2017:

JD: “Can I ask u a serious question?
You’re excited and looking forward to good things ahead though, right? Can’t wait to give you your presents.
We are going to Dubai is your present amongst two other things.”

Mike: “Holy shit...”

As we can see, Mike is completely unaware of a trip to Dubai before JD’s message. JD also states in texts on or around February 5, 2017 that she took it upon herself to upgrade their Dubai hotel “quite a bit.” A few days later, further texts make evident the fact Mike knows very little about this trip he “asked for”: “What are the dates for Dubai? My sister and Colin are going to be in Europe.”

On or around February 24, 2017, JD texts Mike, asking if he’s thought more on Dubai, about whether he’s comfortable with stuff (letting her call him her boyfriend). Mike states “I’m still not. I told you I would tell you if I was.” Again, on or around February 27, 2017, JD brings up their relationship status, stating if Mike still isn’t comfortable saying he’s “with” her, she may cancel the trip.

During the Dubai trip in early March 2017, Mike’s step-father was put on life support. Upon returning home, JD texts “I am so sorry you had to come home to this after such a great trip.” In her Declaration 36, though, JD claimed he verbally and sexually abused her on this trip. There is no mention of ANY type of abuse in Dubai on either the Dasasmi interview or her TedX.

-Declaration 38: JD claims to be suffering from anxiety related to abuse at the hands of Mike in March 2017. While no evidence confirming or denying this claim, the passing of Mike’s step-father, a lifechanging event, occurred. During this time, according to texts, Mike himself was suffering from anxiety. When Mike discusses future financial hardships related to his step-father’s death, JD offers for him to live with her and to help his family financially, but only if he says he sees her as his future wife.

-Declaration 39: In Declaration 39, JD claims that in May 2017, Mike’s mother and sister went into her apartment without her permission while she was not home. This statement, as well as text message, prove that Mike’s mother and sister were in town and at least his mom in attendance for JD’s May 10, 2017 riding competition where she has a huge fall off her horse.

There are no records or proof that Mike copied JD’s apartment key or ever had a copy in his possession. As stated in texts dating as far back as July 2016, JD would toss her key out her window to let Mike in, as the apartment was in her sister's name and JD could not buzz anyone into the building. In fact, on May 13, 2016, JD states in a text to Mike "Try to buzz in and the door is unlocked here...I left the door unlocked at my place"

-Declarations 42-43: Here, JD alleges, in June 2017, she withdrew from the relationship after alleged SA. She also alleges Mike stated he would "work on being better" when she spoke with him about not seeing each other anymore. According to texts, Mike and JD had an argument on or around June 30, 2017 in which JD pressured Mike to say he loved her. It's clear JD was not trying to leave the relationship. Rather, she was attempting to force Mike to say he loved her. When he didn't comply, she became upset. She even states "I want to move forward and not loving each other stops that," "We need to plan a vacay" and in August "I would appreciate the support as my boyfriend." Some, but not all, messages showing JD was pursuing a relationship with Mike from July-November 2017 are below:

July 2: "Are you coming over tonight? :kissing_heart:

July 4: "I want romance. I want us to have a romantic fairy tale :)"

July 5: "Let's do dinner."

July 7: "Do you want to go to dinner with my parents and them on Sunday at the daily grill?"

July 10: "Trust me. Can you do that? I can't sleep because of this."

July 14: " Just got to din with my parents a few min ago, want to come at 8:30?"

July 15: "Want to come over? I am just walking in."

July 17: "You could come keep me company."

July 23: "Miss you...Dinner tomorrow?"

July 25: "You up for nonstop snuggling?"

August 1: "...Because I would appreciate the support as my boyfriend."

August 15: "I was thinking you were my boyfriend."

August 17: JD: "All I keep thinking about is how after a year and five months, you don't love me...I need to have more self respect than that and realize that's not good enough for the kind of relationship I want."

Mike: I understand and am sorry that I'm not on the same level as you."

September 3: "I miss you :("

October 7: "Hey Mike, I have been thinking about you a lot and truly miss you. Can we talk tomorrow?"

November 2: "Baby, I miss you"

November 10: "Do you want to watch dateline with me?"

JD also states in texts "Not feeling like you want to hang out a lot with me anymore." This, from someone who claims to be distancing herself from the relationship. At or around this time, JD also claims to be suffering from memory issues, issues so serious that they are "freaking [her] out" in texts to Mike.

-Declarations 46-47: In Declarations 46-47, JD states specific instances in October/November 2017 Mike either "stalked" her at a restaurant or at her apartment, implying she wanted nothing to do with him. As we saw in the aforementioned texts from October/November 2017, not only was JD engaging with Mike, she says she misses him, wants to speak with him and invites him over to watch an episode of Dateline.

-Declaration 49: Here, JD claims she received a text message from Mike that he saw JD and her family at a local restaurant. However, Mike's laptop analysis shows text communication between the two ending on 11/26/17.

-Declarations 50-57: Declarations 50-57 claim stalking of JD by Mike. Mike has stated he believed JD to be stalking him, possible via the Snapchat app. He states JD would be "walking by" outside while he was leaving restaurants, not the other way around. In regard to the "mid or late December 2017" event, Mike states JD's father gave Mike a hug and said he hoped Mike was doing well. Mike also refutes several of these Declarations in his Deposition.

As to JD's Declaration 56 "I have been going to Barry's Bootcamp...Then in December 2017, Mr. Marraccini joined that gym, even though he does not live in the neighborhood.", it is shown in texts that JD shared her Barry's Bootcamp gym membership with him: "I just double checked with barrys about you using my package...a couple can share one so you're in!!" In May 2017, Mike texts JD "Im also going to go cancel my equinox membership. So you might be seeing me at barry's quite a bit." Declaration 56 by JD claims Mike didn't join this gym until December 2017. Two months later, on July 21, 2017, Mike offers to pay JD for the Barry's membership, to which she responds "Okay!"

-Declaration 58: While it is true JD messaged Mike's then-girlfriend, saying "Regardless of if you do anything with the information I shared with you, I would be you not to share it with Mike or bring up my name as he truly scares me at this point", the then-girlfriend did bring this up with Mike, even sending the messages to him electronically on January 12, 2018. In fact, Mike's then-girlfriend did not believe anything JD claimed in these Facebook messages, which is proven by an email the then-girlfriend sent Mike on January 12, 2017 entitled:

"What To Do If Falsely Accused – Criminal Law Lawyer Source"

"Most of this stuff you already know but this site has good, practical information. Also, screenshot any photos she might have with you that would show evidence against her claim. Try and capture all that information before she takes it down.

I quickly looked at her FB page and she still has this up of you two. It goes against her timeline of "abuse" ... (FB post: "Tune in to KGO to hear Michael Marraccini and me on a live with Ronn Owens [Public Figure] at 11:30am! We have been working very hard to launch our new show, "We Need to Talk" and can't wait to discuss that, amongst other topics (like Valentine' Day!) on the show.

-Declarations 59-62: These declarations address an interaction between JD, Mike and his sister on the evening of January 7, 2018. JD's account is that, after having dinner with her parents, she encountered Mike and his sister – that they were standing in the middle of the sidewalk and staring at her. "Mr. Marraccini yelled at me, 'Are you kidding me?!' Then his sister called me a psychopath. JD claims more yelling occurred and that she told Mike to "stay away" from her, that she was going to seek a restraining order. However, her account of events is refuted by Mike and his sister's own Declarations. His sister states JD was the one yelling and scream obscenities at Mike.

JD's claims in Declaration 60 and 61 are that JD claims that 1AM on January 8, 2018, she received a call from the police in which they stated they'd received an email from Mike about the Facebook messages JD had sent to Mike's then-girlfriend. She claims they asked if they could come to her apartment to make a report on her domestic violence claims.

Mike did call the police that night- to file a report against JD for her stalking of him and harassment of his sister and himself that evening. This is supported by Mike's sister's Declaration. A picture of the police taking Mike's statement and the report number are in supporting evidence provided in the Dropbox link for this post.

Declaration 61 states: "The next day, I was afraid to leave my house. I didn't know what to do, so I contacted the Sherriff and asked for help figuring out how to get a restraining order. I also spoke with someone from the District Attorney's Office that day. They asked if I wanted to file criminal charges, but I said no." Interestingly, this is not at all what JD claimed happened in her Dasasmi interview. On Dasasmi, she states:

"So one night, after this had happened, [referring to the interaction the evening of Sunday, January 7, 2018], I thought, 'I've had enough. Here's what I'm gonna do. I'm gonna end this right now. I'm gonna go to the police station and they're gonna just say to me, "Oh my God, thank God, thank God you came for help." you know, "We've got this." So I went to the police station – I'm, just, bawling. I mean, I look like a shadow of myself. And when I went up to the police originally, it was like, okay, you know, you're gonna have to wait for a bit. I'm waiting, I'm waiting...an hour and a half goes by, I go up to the front and I'm like, 'Hey, is somebody coming out soon?' Finally, a JUNIOR officer comes out and he's like, "Hey, you know, I just read your story and you know, it just kinda sounds like he's an asshole. So, do you want me to drive you home?" And I said, 'But wait, I really, I need, whatever this temporary order is that you can issue, can I please have that? And he's like, "Well, you know, it's the weekend, and that's pretty difficult to get, so, um, you know, maybe just wait until Monday and, uh, try to go to the courthouse and get an order or something." So I left feeling awful. I was shocked because I thought once you went to the police, that was really it, that they really would take it from there. And that was not my experience."

Let's do a comparison:

- Declaration: Too afraid to leave house. Called Sherriff's office and DA.
- Dasasmi: Physically went to police station, wasn't afraid for her life, had to wait 1.5hrs, wasn't taken seriously, told had to wait until Monday to get OOP

If you've made it to this point, congratulations! Is this way too much information to digest right now? You bet it is. But I urge you, please go back after your first look to truly explore the evidence here. Mike deserves to have his story known and the truth revealed.
