In re:

ELIZABETH ANN NAYLOR and

RONALD STEPHEN OWENS,

Debtors

Case No. 2:26-bk-05144-MCW

Chapter 11

Honorable Madeleine C. Wanslee

DEBTORS' MOTION FOR AUTHORIZATION TO APPEAR BY VIDEOCONFERENCE AT HEARING ON EMERGENCY MOTION TO EXTEND AUTOMATIC STAY

Debtors Elizabeth Ann Naylor and Ronald Stephen Owens, appearing pro se as Debtors-in-Possession, respectfully move this Court pursuant to Judge Wanslee's Procedures Section 2.6.1 for authorization to appear by ZoomGov videoconference at the hearing on the Emergency Motion to Extend Automatic Stay. In support, Debtors state as follows:

1. Ronald Stephen Owens is eighty years old. He has lived with Parkinson's disease for twenty-five years, has survived four separate bouts of cancer, carries a current cancer diagnosis, and has serious heart disease. His condition requires daily medical care, medication management, and physical assistance. In-person travel from Scottsdale to the Phoenix courthouse presents a significant medical hardship that his condition does not safely permit.
2. Elizabeth Ann Naylor, age sixty-nine, is Mr. Owens's caregiver. She provides his daily medical care, medication management, and physical assistance.

3. Title II of the Americans with Disabilities Act, 42 U.S.C. § 12132, prohibits public entities — including federal courts — from excluding qualified individuals with disabilities from participating in their programs and services. Ronald Stephen Owens is a qualified individual with a disability within the meaning of the ADA. Authorization to appear by videoconference is the reasonable accommodation that Title II contemplates for these circumstances, and one that this Court's own videoconference procedures make readily available.

4. Both Debtors are fully capable of appearing by ZoomGov videoconference. They have access to the necessary technology and are familiar with videoconference proceedings. Their remote appearance will not impair the Court's ability to assess their participation or evaluate the evidence and arguments presented. Debtors will comply with the Court's published Videoconference Hearing Guidelines.

5. Debtors respectfully request authorization to appear by ZoomGov video conference using the Court's published videoconference information, available at <https://www.azb.uscourts.gov/videoconference-hearing-guidelines>, or by telephonic appearance using the Court's published dial-in information.

6. A proposed form of order is uploaded concurrently herewith. Pursuant to Judge Wanslee's Procedures Section 2.6.1, Debtors have concurrently emailed a copy of this Motion and the proposed Order to Courtroom Deputy Tayler Hall at Tayler_Hall@azb.uscourts.gov.

Respectfully submitted,

Dated: June 16, 2026
