RELEASE TYPEBailable As a Matter of Right

YOU ARE ORDERED to comply with all release conditions. You shall be released from custody in this Case Number as follows:

Own Recognizance

You are released without providing any money or security deposit, and you promise to appear in Court as required.

RELEASE CONDITIONS

1. Go to all court hearings. Missing court can result in an arrest warrant, being taken back into custody, no bond or a higher bond. The court may also hold the hearing in your absence.
2. You are not to initiate contact with the arresting officers.
3. You are not to initiate contact with the alleged complainant or witness.
4. You are not to initiate contact with the alleged victim or victims.
5. You are not to possess any drugs without a valid prescription.
6. Do not leave the state.
7. You must return to the police department that arrested you and have them 10-Print fingerprint you. If you are released from custody you must complete this before your next hearing. You must bring proof of your fingerprinting to your next hearing or your release may be revoked.
8. IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that:
Pursuant to ARS §13-610 and Rule 4.2(9) of the Arizona Rules of Criminal Procedure, that the arresting agency shall secure a DNA sample as required by ARS §13-610 §§ (k) and (g) for every person scheduled for this Criminal Court calendar that was arrested for any charge specified by ARS 913-610(0) and provide compliance to the Superior Court.

SUPERIOR COURT OF ARIZONA, MARICOPA COUNTY

NAME: Laura Owens

Case: CR2025-007905-001

General Conditions

- You must appear at all court proceedings. Missing court may result in a warrant for your arrest, losing your release conditions, and the court holding the hearing in your absence.
- You must maintain contact with your attorney.
- You must appear for Sentencing if you are convicted. If your absence delays sentencing for more than 90 days, you may lose your right to a direct appeal unless you prove that your absence was involuntary by clear and convincing evidence.
- Failure to appear at a future court proceeding may result in waiving any claim that you were not informed of a plea offer made by the State. Not appearing may also result in a separate charge of "Failure to Appear," punishable by jail (in addition to penalties for your current charge).
- Do not commit any criminal offenses. If you are released on a felony charge, and the court finds you committed a new felony during the period of release, the court must revoke your release.
- Do not leave the state without permission of the court.

If you violate any of these General Conditions, the court may issue a warrant for your arrest, revoke your release, forfeit the bond and security deposit, increase the bond, modify the conditions of release, find you in contempt of court and sentence you to imprisonment, a fine, or both.

Acknowledgement

I have received a copy of this form. I understand all conditions listed, and that violating any condition can result in being taken back into custody until this case ends. I agree to comply fully with each of the conditions and to notify the court promptly of any change of address.
