NOTICE OF RIGHT TO APPLY TO HAVE CONVICTION SET ASIDE AND CERTIFICATE OF SECOND CHANCE, AND TO PETITION TO SEAL CRIMINAL CASE RECORDS

(A.R.S. §13-905; A.R.S. §13-911; Rule 29, Arizona Rules of Criminal Procedure)

On fulfillment of the conditions of probation or sentence and discharge by the court, you may apply to the court where you were sentenced to have the judgment of guilt set aside and you may also be eligible for a Certificate of Second Chance. You can file the application yourself, or if you have an attorney or probation officer, they can file the application on your behalf. Additionally, once you have completed all conditions of your sentence or probation, been discharged by the court and the required time has passed, you can petition the court to seal your criminal case records including records of your arrest, conviction and sentence.

If you have cases in more than one court, each appropriate court must act on each case individually. If you have more than one case number, you must file a separate application or petition for each case number. Note that a conviction for certain offenses cannot be set aside and the granting of an application to set aside a conviction will not affect your driver license record.

The court will not charge a fee for filing an Application to Set Aside a Conviction, Certificate of Second Chance, or a Petition to Seal Criminal Case Record.

If the court grants your Application to set aside, the court must include a Certificate of Second Chance pursuant to A.R.S. § 13-905 (K) if you are eligible. The Application to Set Aside the Judgment of Guilt, the Application for a Certificate of Second Chance, and the Petition to Seal Criminal Case Record can be located on the Scottsdale City Court's website, www.ScottsdaleAZ.gov/Court.

For more information, see Arizona Revised Statutes sections 13-905 and 13-911.
